

Growth Accelerator Programme 2015 Cohort

Enterprise

Purpose

To develop their service for thermal imaging and automated digital analysis of energy efficiency opportunities for the mass market using a “Google Streets” type of approach. Based in Dundee.
www.irtsurveys.co.uk

To provide a service which helps vulnerable people clear lofts, interiors and gardens for insulation and other services while providing training and employment for rural NEETS. Based in Ipswich.
www.lofty-heights.org

To repurpose iconic telephone kiosks to provide free, solar-powered mobile charging around London and provide free community advertising to local charities and social enterprises. Based in London.
www.solarboxlondon.org

To design and produce prefabricated panels for internal solid wall insulation made from breathable bio wallboard composed of natural, sustainable materials. Based in London. www.adaptavate.com

To offer customers an online bill management service for low income shared accommodation which aims to reduce hassle, arguments and personal credit rating issues. Based in London. www.dividabill.co.uk

To manufacture low cost, intelligent thermostatic radiator valves that enable zonal heating and adapt to usage patterns, helping to reduce energy consumption, bills and carbon emissions. Based in Guildford.
www.opentrv.org.uk

To create a renewable biomass fuel from three waste streams that the company collects: used coffee grounds, shredded confidential waste paper, and wood shavings. Based in Portsmouth. www.tracouk.com

To support communities in Wales develop small-scale community wind installations while providing training and development for young people. Based in Powys, Wales. www.anemos.org.uk

To work with the Isle of Wight Zoo to produce their own energy from the animals’ poo and develop an educational exhibit alongside the anaerobic digestion (AD) plant. Based on Isle of Wight.
www.ecclestongeorge.co.uk